Order

6 v.

7 MARTIN O'MALLEY,
8 Commissioner of Social Security,
9 Defendant

10 Plaintiff filed an application to proceed in forma pauperis (IFP) and pro se complaint
11 against the Commissioner of Social Security alleging the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) made 12 harmful legal errors on his disability case. (ECF Nos. 1, 1-1.) On November 15, 2024, the court 13 issued an order finding that Plaintiff did not allege that he appealed the ALJ's decision to the 14 Social Security Appeals Council and received a decision that would be a final appealable
15 decision of the Commissioner. Nor did he allege how the ALJ erred in denying him disability 16 benefits. As such, the court ordered that the complaint would be filed and served on the 17 Commissioner, but the court dismissed the complaint with leave to amend to correct those 18 deficiencies. Plaintiff was given 30 days to file an amended complaint. He was cautioned that a 19 failure to timely do so may result in dismissal of his action. (ECF No. 6.)
